

Church Match Grant

Trinity Evangelical Divinity School
Trinity Graduate School

How it Works

If your church donates funds toward your education, Trinity will match donations each academic year (summers not included except for Doctor of Ministry students).

- MDIV, MA and PhD Students
 - Up to $500 per semester from any church
 - Up to $1,000 per semester from an EFCA church
 - Up to $1,000 per semester if student is an alum of Trinity
- Doctor of Ministry Students
 - Up to $100 per seminar
 - Up to $150 per seminar if the student is an alum of Trinity
 - Up to $250 per seminar from EFCA church
- Advance: Pre-seminary Honors Program Students
 - Up to $1,500 per semester

Student Qualifications

- Open to students in a degree seeking program at the Deerfield
- Based on full-time enrollment (10 hrs. for Masters or 9 hrs. PhD)
- Pro-rated if part-time
- Multiple churches can support a student but Trinity will only match up to the applicable amounts indicted above.

Important Guidelines for Churches

- For the church to participate, it must have a scholarship fund set up that is in compliance with the Internal Revenue Service's guidelines for charitable deductions.
- Parents or relatives who contribute to the church fund in order for their gift to go to their student's scholarship will not meet the charitable deduction guidelines. Gifts cannot be given with an "understanding" that they will be designated toward a specific person or funneled through the church to receive this grant.
- A student who is on staff with the church is not allowed to have salary redirected to go toward the Church Match Grant.
- A church representative must complete and sign this application form, thus confirming the church is in compliance with the TIU Church Match Grant guidelines.

How To Apply

To apply, simply have a church representative complete the form on the reverse side and return the form and check (made payable to Trinity International University) directly to the Student Financial Services Office at Trinity International University. Please make sure your name and "Church Match Grant" are written on the check memo line.

The deadline to submit the Church Match Grant form and check to Student Financial Services is the first day of each semester.
